BUSINESS LOCALS.

Attend Kerr's clearance sale tomorrow. Bargains in all lines.
See Whitney & Marsh's window display for wash goods bargains.

Remember that the men's suits in the Kerr sale are modern in style.
Jordan's will close at one o'clock today to make final preparations for their ten-day sale, commencing on Monday.

Men and boys have the same chance as the ladies at the Kerr clearance sale beginning Saturday.

Call at McInerney's shoe store and examine the new Packard shoes now in stock. They're stylish looking, perfect fitting and good wearing. Prices $4.50 and $5.

Nothing shopworn is offered in the goods sold at Kerr's clearance sale. Practically your own price for anything.

After arguing for two days in the federal court over the demurrer filed in the case of the United States against Moses Keki, the case has gone over for some time while a transcript of four or five hundred pages is made of a former trial. It is claimed that this former trial makes the present one illegal.

Next Thursday and Friday Mr. Lionel Mathews will lecture at the Young Hotel on "How to Learn a Language in Five Weeks." Everybody invited.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Today is ladies' day at the Commercial Club.

The Ministerial Union will meet on Monday morning in Central Union church.

Akui, as father and guardian of Rose Akui, has filed the accounts in the circuit court. He charges himself with $67 and asks to be allowed $80.75.

Charles G. Bartlett, manager of the Honolulu Malt and Brewing Company, has sold the company real estate in Honolulu, makai of Queen street, for $1500.

William Henry has filed the final accounts, as administrator, of the estate of James H. Clark, who died on board the Alameda some time ago. The administrator charges himself with $340.62 and asks to be allowed $127.50.

Matsu Sawamura has filed suit for divorce against her husband Setaro Sawamura who deserted her one week after they immigrated into Honolulu, arriving here in 1907. She has not known his whereabouts for two years but last week found him at Kapaeha, Maui.

The answer of D. L. Conkling to the suit brought against him by the Dreier Estate was filed yesterday in the circuit court by Attorney-General Hemenway. The answer denies the principal allegations of complaint. The suit is incidental to the assessment troubles between it and the Territory.

Maston Campbell, superintendent of public works, left for Maui last night on business connected with the Kula pipeline and other territorial matters on that island. The pipe for the line is now on board the Hawaiian and Californian on its way from the east coast to Tehuantepec from whence it will be shipped here.

At this writing there is every indication of fair weather for the dance at Haleiwa tonight. And the music is to be if the character that gives swing to dancers. It is believed this will be one of the best affairs had at Haleiwa in a long time. The road down is in very good condition and the moon is just full the ride back should be enjoyable. Take a joy ride in that direction tonight.

The promotion committee has just issued a leaflet, which gives in a brief way much information concerning Honolulu, designed to be enclosed in business envelopes. The committee had the leaflets printed to be supplied to business houses. Acting Secretary Cooper asks that business houses call for leaflets and that one be enclosed in each letter sent to the mainland, or elsewhere in the world outside of the Hawaiian Islands. They will be supplied on application at the promotion office.

PERSONALS.

Miss Florence R. Yarrow has been away almost three months to visit her sick mother in New Jersey, and has returned to resume her good work among the children of the Kaunakapili Sunday school. She will speak on Sunday, and the public is cordially invited.

INVITATION TO YOUNG MEN.

Young men of the city are cordially invited to the Bible study class that meets Sunday mornings at ten minutes to ten in the parlor of Central Union Church.

The class is now approaching one of the most interesting stages of its study of the New Testament, as the events of the last week of Christ will be read in the gospel of Mark and discussed. This reading will embrace the crucifixion and resurrection.

To take an active interest in this class it is not necessary to be a member of a church. In fact most of the members of the class are non-church members. Neither is it necessary to attend regularly, and any casual visitor will find the meetings exceedingly interesting. Men who are interested in Bible matters and religious matters are welcome to the class and tomorrow will be found a very good time to begin for those who are interested.

A lightweight championship will be decided tonight at Aloha Park.

MANOA CLUB WILL MAKE ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

The Valley Folk Want Wretched Roads Put In Good Condition.

The Manoa Improvement Club executive committee held a meeting on Thursday evening, when committees for an active improvement campaign were appointed. One of the principal aims of the whole club this winter will be the improvement of the roads in the valley. Although good work was done on the upper Manoa road, yet that thoroughfare is far from being completed and needs a road roller to tamp down soft places. Some parts of the road have not been connected up.

The lower Manoa, or Church, road has not been touched. This is in a wretched condition, and in some places is dangerous for vehicular travel by night. The extension of Oahu avenue from the terminus of the earline to where it connects with the main, or upper Manoa, road, which is used by a large number of residents of the upper part of the valley, has had absolutely no attention, and is in a deplorable condition for foot travelers. A strong campaign will be conducted to have these roads attended to.

There will be a celebration at the Athletic Park on November 3, the anniversary of the birthday of the Emperor of Japan. There will be two games of ball in which Japanese teams will take part. At 1:30 the Fuses and Mo Hocks will start a game and they will be followed by the Asahis and Banzais. In addition to the baseball there will be sports of different kinds and a great afternoon's sport is promised. It is expected that the band will play during the afternoon.
